Activities for 11-13s

Activity 1: First to a million - nudes being shared without consent

- Re-open the First to a Million Powerpoint file (you’ll find this at www.thinkuknow.co.uk/parents/support-tools/home-activity-worksheets/11-13s/) and re-watch the clips on slides 10 and 11. If you’re yet to watch the film, please watch the full First to a million interactive drama.

- Write the name of one of the characters (either Meg, Jamal or Lucas) who had their nude video shared without their consent (permission) on a sheet of paper. Divide your sheet into two columns and label with the headings ‘Impact’ and ‘Feelings’.

- First complete the ‘Impact’ column for your character by writing down all the ways they might be affected by what has happened;

- Next complete the ‘Feelings’ column: for each of the ideas you wrote in the ‘Impact’ column, write down how that might make the character feel in the ‘Feelings’ column.

- On another sheet of paper, write ‘The Sharer’. Divide it into two columns headed ‘Impact’ and ‘Feelings’, and complete them to show how sharing someone else’s nudes might affect a young person, and how that might make them feel. When you have finished, check the suggested answers which give examples of the impact on ‘The Sharer’, on the sheet below.

Activity 2: Nudes being shared without consent

- Read the ‘Tukmz exclusive’ article attached to this sheet and underline three parts of the article which demonstrate that Fleur has been treated unfairly by either Tukmz newspaper, the media, social media users or her boyfriend.

- Write down why it’s unfair for Fleur to have been treated or spoken about this in this way. The suggested answers box includes a few examples of some of the negative comments in the article and why these are unfair.

- Write down a pledge about what you would do to help the situation if you found out that a friend’s nude was being shared around. You can use the ‘When nudes get shared around’ article (www.thinkuknow.co.uk/11_13/need-advice/when-pics-get-shared-around) if you need some ideas.

Fleur Tean airs trashy laundry for all to see!

Internet and Twitter in full flutter over naked selfies of teen idol!

Tukmz Exclusive

It's a disgraceful example set to other young people. She shouldn't have done it and she deserves all the bad press she gets!

Tukmz

The internet and Twitter have been in full flutter over those nude (and nearly nude) pictures of Fleur Tean, posted anonymously at the weekend all over the popular internet message-board, 2lol.

The 17-year-old pop singer and film starlet has reportedly gone into hiding whilst she consults her legal advisors.

Facing a different type of exposure than the young superstar is used to, Fleur was caught shame-faced leaving a plush London hotel. Fighting back the tears as she ran into a blacked-out limo, not surprisingly she seemed reluctant to comment to crowds of photographers.

Present!

People have been quick to take to social media to comment on the photos, with some die-hard fans backing Fleur saying that stealing and re-sending personal photos is a sex crime and a huge breach of personal privacy.

Others have been quick to condemn Fleur's actions – one Twitter user commented:

"It's a disgraceful example set to other young people. She shouldn't have done it and she deserves all the bad press she gets!"

Bad press or not some online bloggers have even gone on to claim these events were deliberately planned to raise the singer's media profile just weeks ahead of her new album being released.

A source close to the singer said there have been widespread rumours that Fleur's current boyfriend, Lee Antone (17) had been approached by freelance journalists who had offered him money for the scandalous pictures.

The two have been seeing each other for five months after she appeared in the latest video for Lee's band The Over-Auto-Tuners.

It's still not known if these rumours are true or if the photos were uploaded to an email account which was then hacked, but it's thought that the police have been called to investigate.

The fact remains that there might be thousands of copies of these shocking and illegal images of the under-18-year-old making their way around the internet so this little slip-up won't be forgotten about any time soon.

The teenager star is due to release a personal statement on the photos, but initial comments from the family have asked that people and press respect their privacy and allow them some peace during this tricky time.
